Curriculum Vitae

James C. McCollum

Ritter 243
Saint Louis University
(314) 977-7634
james.mccollum@slu.edu

Areas of Specialization
Social/Political Philosophy, Computer Ethics

Areas of Competence
Modern and 19th Century Philosophy, Philosophy of Technology

Education
PhD, Philosophy, Saint Louis University
     St. Louis, MO, 2016
     Committee: James Bohman (Director), Daniel Haybron, William Rehg
     Dissertation: The Soul of Freedom: Knowledge in Dewey's Political Theory

MA, Philosophy, University of Memphis
     Memphis, TN, 2006
BA, History and Philosophy, University of Akron
     Akron, OH, 2004

Certifications
Reinert Center Culturally Responsive Teaching Fellow
Applying the Quality Matters Rubric for Online Education (2021)

Positions
2022-Present, Instructor and Concurrent Enrollment Liaison, Computer Science and Philosophy Saint Louis University
2019-2022, Instructor, Maryville University
2011-2022, Instructor, Saint Charles Community College
2016-2019, Post-doctoral Fellow, Saint Louis University
2013-2016, Digital Liaison, The Philosophy and Theology of Intellectual Humility
     Grant, Saint Louis University

Service

Undergraduate Coordinator, The Department of Computer Science

Chair, Curriculum Committee of the School of Science and Engineering's Faculty Council

Ignite Seminar Committee, University Core

1818 Liaison, The Department of Philosophy

Reviewer, Human Studies

Publications
"Hermeneutical Injustice and the Social Sciences: Development Policy and Positional Objectivity." Social Epistemology 26, no. 2 (2012): 189-200

Edited Journals
Special Issue of Social Epistemology dedicated to Miranda Fricker's Epistemic
Injustice. 26, no. 2 (2012)
Co-edited with James Bohman

Reviews
"Review of The Undiscovered Dewey: Religion, Morality, and the Ethos of Democracy." Education and Culture 27, no. 2 (2011): 9

Conferences and Presented Papers

October 2024, "Computing Ethics as Non-Domination: Pedagogy and Political Theory." Presented at Society for Ethics Across the Curriculum

April 2011, "Public Intellectual Virtue: Epistemic Injustice and the Social Sciences."
Poster at Three Rivers Philosophy Conference on Science, Knowledge and Democracy

October 2010, "Threats to Democratic Creativity and Freedom: A Deweyan Account" Presented at Washington University in St. Louis Workshop in Political Theory

February 2009, "Reason's Desire: Kant on Objective and Intellectual Interest."
Presented at the Mid-South Philosophy Conference

Honors and Awards

James D. Collins Graduate Student Award for Excellence: Saint Louis University, 2010

Teaching Experience

CSCI 5050 (10x): Computers and Society, Saint Louis University
PHIL 101 (6x): Introduction to Philosophy, Saint Charles Community College
PHIL 101 (1x): Introduction to Philosophy (Online), Saint Charles Community College
PHIL 1050 (9x): Introduction to Philosophy, Saint Louis University
PHIL 1020 (3x): Introduction to Logic, Saint Charles Community College
PHIL 201 (14x): World Religions (Online), Saint Charles Community College
PHIL 2050 (4x): Ethics, Saint Louis University
PHIL 325 (5x): Ethics, Maryville University
PHIL 2020 (2x): Introduction to Philosophy, Maryville University
PHIL 2020 (1x): Introduction to Philosophy (Online), Maryville University
PHIL 301 (2x): Ethics and Technology, Maryville University
PHIL 306 (1x): Medieval Philosophy, Maryville University
PHIL 3300 (2x): Philosophy of the Human Person, Saint Louis University
PHIL 3410 (10x): Computer Ethics, Saint Louis University
PHIL 3430 (2x): Philosophy of Law, Saint Louis University
POL   L30-1061 (1x): Introduction to Political Theory, Washington University, St. Louis
SCI/PHIL 140 (1x): History and Philosophy of Science, Maryville University